

YIKES !! Not for me!

There is a lot to see online. Tell your parents when you see something that is not for children, or if a stranger tries to chat with you.

If something you see makes you feel unsafe or uncomfortable online ask your parents for help right away and they will help you.

